“The International Istanbul Furniture Fair (IIFF), as the most powerful meeting stage for the global furniture industry, not only strengthens the Turkish furniture industry’s journey on a global scale but also adds value to the commercial volume, collaborations, and new partnerships of the world furniture sector. As one of the world’s largest fair organizations with an exhibition area of 250,000 square meters, IIFF is shaping the future with its scale, vision, and dynamism. We aim to further increase this contribution in the coming years, making IIFF an indispensable hub for the international furniture industry.”

Ahmet Güleç
Chairman of the Board, MOSFED

International Istanbul Furniture Fair 2027 is coming!

At the fair where the heart of trade beats, we will once again broaden the horizons of exports, forge new collaborations, and shape the future of the industry together.

We are excited to invite all our valued stakeholders, exhibitors, and visitors to be part of this grand gathering in 2027.

Mark your calendars and join us for another year of success, inspiration, and global connections!

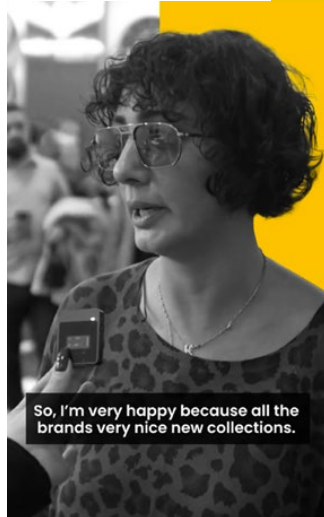

We can see that the Istanbul fair is one of the best in the world.

My company comes here every year. Uh we consider uh the Istanbul fair one of the best in the world and it's always on our checklist and u uh this year's fair. It's uh fantastic.

It is amazing, good design, and also the quality of the product is amazing.

I highly recommend encouraging them to come. The design and product quality are excellent. You can find Italian and German quality at a good price, and the infrastructure is very friendly—Turkey is one of the most welcoming countries in the world.

So, I'm very happy because all the brands very nice new collections.

So I'm very happy because all the brands very nice new collections. So and it's very important to be a part of this exhibition.
